Annual General Meeting

The AGM featured a panel discussion on the topic: Why are our rates going up?"

The discussion was moderated by NRA committee member Antonia Cardone. The panelists were:

- Peter Fairlie Jones – Norwood Residents Association Committee; City of Prospect ARC (Audit Risk Committee); former Director of Finance, City of Salisbury
- Cr Grant Piggott – Current City of NPSP Council Member
- Tim O'Loughlin – City of Onkaparinga ARC; Professor of the Practice of Public Policy and Management, Carnegie Mellon University

A robust Q&A session followed the panel discussion, giving members an opportunity to ask questions of the panel.

Committee Meeting

Overview

Apologies: Greg Mackie, Lyn Osmond, Pauline Cudmore, Colin Murray

The Norwood Residents Association meeting covered the development of position papers, the production of the Norwood Matters newsletter, and a 10% increase in membership since the last AGM. Tom Smith reported the association's finances, noting a flat $20 membership fee for the first time in eight years.

Committee member Liz McLeay presented a report on the achievements of the NRA over the past year.

An election was held by Cr Greg Piggott of NRA Officers for the following year:

President - Antonia Cardone

Secretary - Vicki Brougham

Treasurer - Tom Smith

The meeting concluded with a call for new committee members and plans for a holiday party and a candidates' meeting in the new year.

The Association emphasized its commitment to community engagement and upcoming events.

Actions

Publish the minutes from this AGM meeting on the Norwood Residents Association website after the meeting.

Plan and organize a December holiday party for members, including sending invitations via email or other suitable channels.

Plan and host a candidates' meeting in the new year where local election candidates relevant to the community present to residents.
